

Charlie Baldwin

men's & women's soccer coach

Charlie Baldwin is in his second season as assistant coach for both the soccer programs at Northwest.

Baldwin has 19 years of soccer coaching experience under his belt.

Most recently, Baldwin served as head soccer coach at DeSoto Central High School. He led the boys' soccer program in 2005 and 2006 and the girls' squad in 2003 and 2004. Baldwin led DeSoto Central to three Chickasaw Conference championships.

Baldwin was the girls' head soccer coach at Southaven High School from 1998 through 2001.

Baldwin coached the Germantown Fury for four years and the Memphis Futbol Club for nine seasons. He was also a training coach for the Mississippi Olympic Development Program.

A 1973 graduate of Southaven High School, Baldwin holds a NSCAA National Diploma and USF National "C" License.

Baldwin is married to the former Mary Barkley of Southaven. They have a son, Charlie, and a daughter, Christy.
